1st in Hong Kong
World’s Most International Universities 2020

First and Foremost

As the oldest tertiary education institution in Hong Kong, the University now has more than 220,000 alumni at the forefront of community life in Hong Kong, providing leadership in commerce and industry, in government, in education, and in the arts, sciences and culture. On the world scene, HKU has established a solid reputation as a premier international university and a member of the global family of universities. The University truly lives up to its motto: Sapientia et Virtus: Wisdom and Virtue.
The HKU MBA is offered in both weekday and weekend modes. Students can choose the study mode that best suits their work commitments. A certain degree of flexibility between weekday and weekend mode courses may be allowed on a case-by-case basis. The weekday or weekend mode applies to core courses only, with electives offered from a common pool comprising courses in both modes.

Weekday Mode
Students study in the heart of the city at our Town Centre in Admiralty. Classes meet twice a week on weekday evenings from 6:30 pm to 9:45 pm.

Weekend Mode
Classes are held on Saturdays at the Town Centre in Admiralty, HKU Campus or the Cyberport campus. As Saturday classes are conducted only once a week, students are expected to dedicate the entire day, from 9:30 am to 5:00 pm, to the programme. Some weekend classes are occasionally conducted on Friday evenings.

Programme Structure
You are expected to complete the below courses within a minimum of 2 years (to a maximum of 4 years) in a 5-week modular structure, meaning you just have to concentrate on one single course in a given 5-week period.

Flexibility
Studying at your own pace, you can complete this MBA degree within 24 months whilst continuing your busy work schedule.

Modular Structure
Both weekday and weekend modes are offered on a modular basis to allow students to focus on studying one course at a time. Each module lasts about five weeks. This structure offers tremendous benefits to students, who may have intensive work commitments in a particular period, and can thus choose not to enroll in that module.

Regional Perspective
Our Asia-Pacific focus will give you a distinct advantage in building your career in the region. The focus on Asia and China business renders the programme highly relevant to the wider region’s dynamic, ever-evolving business environment.

Case-Based Approach
The HKU MBA programme adopts an experiential-learning approach, with the extensive use of business cases that enables students to become effective problem solvers and decision makers. These cases are written by our own professors and are published by our renowned Asia Case Research Centre (www.acrc.org.hk).

Diverse and Contemporary Elective Selection
Your MBA electives are often taught by industry practitioners to bring in real-world experience and experienced professors to solidify your management framework. Our elective courses include: Artificial Intelligence for Business Leaders, Insights & Lessons: Reflections of a CEO, Online Business Strategy, Marketing for Tech-intensive Industries, The Emergence of Fintech and its Impact on Global Finance and Banking, International Field Project and so on.

Professional Development Workshops
Part-time MBA students will have access to professional development workshops and industry leadership talks. We invite professionals to guide our students through workshops that focus on topics such as personal branding, communication and industry knowledge enhancement. Leadership talks given by industry executives offer opportunities for students to engage in meaningful dialogue with business leaders, allowing students to gain an in-depth understanding of how global businesses work.

Business Incubation for Entrepreneurs
The aim of this module is to incubate the development and consolidation of business concepts on and ideas and encourage entrepreneurship. Investors, entrepreneurs and business leaders with sector-specific experience offer a real-world perspective to students.

International Field Trip
In the past few years, we have organised numerous international field trips to Asia, Europe and the US. International field trip is an elective which helps our students understand business dynamics in different economies by visiting companies and institutions, and also speak with CEOs and top management of the visited companies.

Strong Alumni Network
More than 220,000 University alumni have spread worldwide representing over 150 nationalities. You can further expand your network regionally and globally.

The London & New York Connection
There is a possibility for you to spend a semester at London Business School or Columbia Business School which offer great environments for business education along with international exposure.

Alumni Auditing
In order to equip our alumni with new knowledge and to refresh their networks, the HKU Business School offers taught post-graduate alumni the chance to come back to class and top-up their learning to stay relevant and competitive. HKU Business School postgraduate alumni are eligible to audit one elective per academic year, who will be able to share their knowledge and experience with current students in the classroom.
MBA LIFE & ENGAGEMENT

As a HKU MBA student, you are opened to a range of extra-curricular activities to enrich your overall MBA experience. MBA alumni, business leaders, and senior executives will be invited to interact with students to create opportunities for your personal and career development. Being part of the HKU MBA family, you can continue to participate in our events to further expand your professional networks. These activities include:
